CAUSE

Mr. Jones appeared before Your Honor on January 22, 2015, on a supervised release revocation. The basis for the violations was that Mr. Jones engaged in alleged criminal activity involving the possession of another individual's credit card. On December 21, 2011, the defendant also appeared in the Richland County Court of Common Pleas for a probation violation due to the above noted violations. Mr. Jones' state supervision was revoked, and he was sentenced to a total of six years' incarceration. When Mr. Jones appeared before Your Honor on January 22, 2015, Your Honor was prepared to terminate the offender's supervised release, but Mr. Jones requested three months at the Alvis House in order to help him integrate into society upon his release. Your Honor ordered he serve three months at the Alvis House and his supervised release to terminate upon completion.

Mr. Jones was released from state custody on April 27, 2015, to the residential program at the Volunteers of America in Mansfield, Ohio, and is scheduled to be released on June 13, 2015. Mr. Jones informed the undersigned officer that he received employment at a barber shop in Mansfield, and he has possible residency in Mansfield. Mr. Jones indicated that he no longer feels that he needs to attend the Alvis House in Columbus due to the above reasons.

Due to all of the reasons above, the undersigned officer respectfully recommends that the condition that Mr. Jones serve three months at the Alvis House be rescinded and he be allowed to terminate supervised release. Mr. Jones is in agreement with the modification and has signed the waiver to acknowledge. A Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions has been included for your review.

Respectfully submitted by,

Matthew R. Moore
U.S. Probation Officer

Approved by,

Brandon K. Mitchell Sr.
Sr. U.S. Probation Officer
